A Treasured Family Home,

Some houses are simply built. 'Santoy' was crafted. From June 1925 to June 1926, master builder Deidrich Both, renowned for the Lutheran Church in Hahndorf and for the original Eudunda Hospital and other fine buildings around South Australia, raised its walls with a craftsman's pride. Land title records give the date as 1938, but the true story begins in the mid-1920s.
A love story in bricks and mortar, 'Santoy' built for A.G. Wiesner of the Wiesner Emporium (beside the Light Hotel) built this wonderful home for his bride-to-be, Mary (Maria). 'Santoy' named so following a very memorable evening when the couple had gone to Her Majesty's Theatre in Adelaide to see the play "Santoy" (The King and I), and it was there that he proposed and the house took
