HISTORIC GRANDEUR ON

Welcome to 13 Gray Street - set on 1326 sq metres of manicured gardens, this stately residence presents a rare opportunity to secure historical charm in the highly sort after church hill area of town.
Built circa 1904 as Ross' School before later becoming a private residence, this remarkable home has a significant history. In 1984, the property was given the name "Lennoxlove", a fitting reflection of the enduring character and charm found throughout.
Presented in excellent condition, the property is surrounded by established flowering gardens and features a magnificent Norfolk Island Pine welcoming you to the residence. An extensive automated garden watering system, complete with central fountain, ensures
