Position, Character and Affordable

This home offers position, character and affordability, and is a real charmer.

Situated at the eastern end of Burnet Street, you will enjoy the convenience of sporting fields, the beautiful North Creek, and the Main Street with shopping, cafes and restaurants only 600 metres away - the perfect pocket for central Ballina.

The home offers old world charm with extended ceiling and timber floors, which are just waiting to be restored.

You will enjoy the open plan living, and the spacious kitchen along with lots of bench space.

The private outdoor entertaining area enjoys the lovely northern aspect, and is the perfect spot to start your day with a lazy coffee. Offering a prime position without the price tag, this is a must to inspect.
