A HEART STOPPING RENOVATION

What better way to introduce an exquisitely renovated home than to show off the landscaped gardens first. A fine selection of native plantations and pathways have been designed to create that invaluable immediate impression.

Behind closed doors this is an absolute marvel. North facing which means light, light and more light. Everything in this three-bedroom home has been made over, moved, freshened up or completely reinvented.

Family satisfaction begins with the heart of the home. A tasteful glossy vinyl wrap kitchen is the centerpiece and flaunts white Silestone bench tops, Electrolux cooking appliances, a new Westinghouse dishwasher, an incorporated European laundry, plenty of storage solutions, a glass splash-back, and the real highlight, timber bi-fold doors to encourage
