Built in the '80s, Built to Last!

Remember the '80s? The music was great, the hair was big, and apparently the rooms were too! Well, forget the time machine, because you can experience a little of that magic at 18 Acacia Road. Built in the coolest era, with the décor and colour schemes to match, this beautifully maintained family home is a prime example of when things were built to last. With spacious living areas, generous bedrooms, a big backyard and a sturdy brick workshop, there's plenty here to get excited about. Bring the family, bring the toys, but leave the shoulder pads at home.

Internal features include:

•Large sunken lounge room with built-in wall cabinetry and a gas point.
