THE COVETED CORNER

Well-loved and ready for its next chapter, this welcoming family home combines solid construction, generous rooms and a coveted corner position in a wonderfully convenient Belmont location. Close to shops and transport, it offers an exciting opportunity to settle in and create a long-term family home, with future development possibilities to explore, subject to council approval.
High ceilings throughout add to the sense of space, while the comfortable living areas, three well-proportioned bedrooms and lush lawns provide an appealing foundation for family life. Enjoy its original charm, add your own touches over time and make the most of a corner location that offers flexibility for the future.
