Wildlife at your door, private block with mountain views!

Positioned on the high side of the estate, this block boasts clear views of Tamborine Mountain and everything in between. With a building envelope of approximately 2,280 square metres, your dream home has plenty of room to fit. Gently sloping downhill and with the building envelope sitting at the highest point you could position your master bedroom or an entertaining deck and look down over acres of your very own slice of bushland. With plenty of earthworks and clearing complete, this affordable block is ready and waiting.
