55 acres of usable land in Boyland

Positioned halfway between the beautiful country town of Canungra and Tamborine is this 55 acre property, surrounded by horse studs, wineries and historic homesteads. This sought after location is sure to impress. The single level brick home with a steel frame has four large bedrooms, generous living areas, an undercover entertaining area and a saltwater in-ground pool. The property is currently set up for the owner's family owned and operated trucking business and has plenty of opportunity for a home run business. On the property is a temporary site office fitted out with a fully functional kitchen and bathroom with power and water. There is a large office at the rear of the house as well as dog kennels, which previously had a kennel license for up to
