Iconic Mountain Property

This well-presented private 2-acre property including main house, separate self-contained cottage and certified organic avocado farm have been lovingly restored to its former glory.

The current owners have done all the hard work and transformed the main house and cottage into beautiful homes full of character with attractive little nooks and living areas. The floors are a combination of original hardwood timber and slate.

The boutique certified Organic Avocado Farm is easy to maintain and comes as a bonus providing an extra income!
