Dual living on acreage

If you are after a change of lifestyle or a home with enough room for your extended family, this property could be just what you are looking for. This two-storey Queenslander style home sits on just under 8 acres of useable land in a quiet location and offers two separate living spaces.

The upper level has polished timber flooring throughout, an open plan kitchen/living area, and has three bedrooms, with one currently set up as a Library. French doors in both the living area and two of the bedrooms lead you onto the three-sided verandah where you can take in the beautiful rural views over your land. The lower level is very spacious, has its own separate entry, and is wheelchair friendly with wide doorways and
