11-acre horse property with thoroughbred nursery

If you are a horse lover and are looking for land with all the infrastructure in place, then this 11-acre thoroughbred horse property is definitely worth an inspection. The magnificent front entry gates lead you up the long driveway where no expense has been spared on the fencing. Having multiple paddocks, the property is currently set up for 15-20 horses and has a large foaling paddock, all of which have day shelters and are irrigated from the two dams on the property.

Nearer the house are 3 lockable yards with shelters, tack room, and wash-bay and overnight holding bays. The large barn style shed will store all your saddlery, equipment, and additional feed.

Cozy and inviting are just two words to describe the
