Mountain delight

This stunning property, set on close to half an acre of flat land, offers all the beauty and charm of a true Mountain home. The lovely cottage garden with its winding pathways take you past mature trees, colourful foliage, and a picturesque pond complete with a waterfall. The Western Red Cedar home is filled with loads of character, with timber beams forming the high ceilings, polished hardwood timber flooring, attractive casement windows and a slow combustion fireplace.

The entry level provides an open plan living area and very workable spacious kitchen, as well as two generously sized bedrooms, a large family bathroom and separate toilet.

An additional room, currently used as an office, could
