Classic, harmonious home has it all!

This beautiful, large home has something for everyone in your family. Private and set back from this sought-after quiet leafy street, it is situated on almost half-acre of land amidst established gardens. The handsome double storey brick home has great character, is very well designed and immaculately presented with functional and attractive layout.

Downstairs:

- The inviting covered front verandah runs the width of the house facing East
- Front entry hall has parquet floors which continue to formal lounge and study
- Elegant central staircase sweeps up to the five bedrooms upstairs
