"Lewis Park"

This sensational 218-acre property could not be in a better location. Included are 3 stunning architect designed homes each overlooking their own large dam and rolling paddocks to Tamborine Mountain. Each home has its own pool and spa along with private entrance. Open and improved pastures have been carefully developed over many years for grazing cattle. Six of the paddocks have been re-sown with pasture grasses including Rhodes grass, Lucerne, Red and White Clover, Bisset, Creeping Blue Grass, Siratro and Panic. There is plenty of water with the 3 large dams and 2.4 kilometres of Albert River frontage. The largest dam has a maximum depth of 10 meters and one of the dams has a boat ramp, camping area, shelter
