"Rocklea" Holstein & Jersey Dairy Farm - Atherton Tablelands

"ROCKLEA" Holstein & Jersey Dairy Farm - Atherton Tablelands.
This 273-acre property which has been family owned since 1931 is situated only 1.5km from the rural township of Millaa Millaa, in the clean green food bowl that is the Atherton Tablelands in tropical North Queensland. The region is highly regarded climatically due to its location in the hinterland area behind Cairns and its height above sea level provides a much more liveable environment in terms of temperature and humidity. Scenically this region is second to none in Australia and it is all within approx. 1.5 hours from Cairns.
The undulating country rises to some steeper ridge area and is mainly fertile red volcanic soil with some river loams along river and creek frontages. The property is fenced into 18 main and 10 smaller paddocks and is connected by over
