Quiet Location!

Please note: A granny flat will be constructed in the rear yard of this property in the coming months. Once construction commences, tenants will not have use of the backyard or shed. This has been taken into consideration and factored into the advertised rental price. During the construction period, the owner will provide a rent reduction to compensate for any inconvenience. Any disruption is expected to be minimal, as a fence will be installed between the main dwelling and the granny flat site prior to works commencing.
