Refined single-level Art Deco home with leafy

Certain homes have an immediate sense of ease, where space, light and character come together naturally. This beautifully presented single-level Art Deco residence is one of them, offering timeless elegance, everyday comfort and a highly desirable position within the McKinnon Secondary College zone.

High ceilings, polished timber floors and classic detailing create a refined backdrop throughout a thoughtfully considered layout. Two generous bedrooms with built-in robes are complemented by a dedicated dining room offering flexibility for alternative use or future reconfiguration (STCA), while a discreet study nook provides a practical work-from-home space without
