Perfect investment property or a comfortable home to

This home is that idealistic scenario of a low maintenance home. A very tidy brick and tile home with bitumen drive, all the way to the double garage, very easy access. Step through the front door into the entrance with the comfortable living space off to one side with reverse cycle air conditioning. Adjoining the living space is the dining space which has access to the patio and connects the gally style kitchen, with ample cupboards/benches and electric stainless steel cooking. A country style kitchen that will have you feeling right at home with a weekend of baking!

All three well sized bedrooms are located off the passage with the bathroom conveniently located across from the rooms. The bathroom features bath and separate shower,
