Tucked behind a modest street presence lies a property that offers far more than first meets the eye. 9 Innes Drive has been purposefully designed for those who need space to live, work, create or store – all within the comfort of a fully functional, low-maintenance home.

Whether you're a growing family, tradesperson, hobbyist or investor, this versatile property delivers exceptional practicality and lifestyle appeal.

With an estimated rental return of $600 – $630 per week, it also presents a strong opportunity for investors seeking solid income potential.

This is not a standard floorplan, and that is exactly its appeal. With multiple internal living zones, a huge detached storage/workshop facility, additional utility
