Space, Security & Serenity on 660m² - Tucked Away on

Tucked privately along the service lane and set on an impressive allotment of approximately 660m², this beautifully maintained home delivers space, security and serenity in one of Kurunjang's most established pockets. From the street, you immediately notice the sense of separation. Being positioned on the service lane means you enjoy the convenience of Gisborne Melton Road access without the constant flow of traffic passing your front door. It's a subtle but significant advantage - offering peace and privacy while still being incredibly well connected.

Inside, the home has a warmth and functionality that makes it easy to picture everyday life unfolding here. The master bedroom is generously proportioned and
