Absolute beachfront living with endless potential

Positioned directly on the beachfront, this is a rare offering where the backyard quite literally meets the sand. Where space, flexibility and a true coastal lifestyle come together in a way that's hard to replicate.

Upstairs, the home opens to a light-filled living and dining zone, where natural breezes and ocean views set the tone. The kitchen is both functional and well-appointed, featuring quality appliances and generous storage, designed to handle everyday living with ease while staying connected to the heart of the home.

Accommodation has been thoughtfully considered across both levels. The upper floor is dedicated to the main suite, complete with a walk-through robe and private ensuite—your own retreat. Downstairs, two
