Circa 1910- She is Delightful!

Step into the charm of this gorgeous Granny Niche cottage, filled with original character. From its delicate windows and high ceilings to the polished timber floors - every corner feels warm and inviting, with the added comfort of air conditioning.

The quaint front verandah is the perfect spot to relax amongst the birdsong and watch the world gently pass by. Surrounded by cottage gardens, the home offers a peaceful and private retreat. A separate open double garage also provides the perfect space for a workshop, studio or hobby shed, complete with concrete flooring. Tucked away in a quiet laneway, this hidden gem is just a short stroll to shops, sporting fields, the hospital and everyday conveniences.
