Modern Coastal Grandeur in the Centre of Robe

Positioned on a substantial 948sqm allotment in the middle of town, this expansive residence delivers a level of scale and finish that is rare to find. The contemporary facade, defined by its tiered stonework and wide portico, introduces a home where every room feels intentionally oversized. Skip the fuss of building and step straight into this sophisticated, move in ready alternative, an effortless way to secure a modern, high-end home today. The main living zone is defined by soaring raked ceilings and clerestory windows that pull the sky inside, creating an airy, light filled volume for daily life. The kitchen is integrated seamlessly into this space, supported by a large walk in pantry that keeps the workspace clutter free. When the weather turns, the dedicated media room,
