Nestled in a quiet court setting in ever-popular Howard Springs, 255 Bastin Road is a tightly held rare offering that delivers a true surprise package.

This long held property is ready to enter the market for the first time and offers an exciting opportunity for the home maker and developer to do something amazing. The property is positioned at the end of the road with only local traffic passing. A driveway winds past towering tropical gardens mixed amongst the native bushland trees towards the main home. This dwelling though dated and tired has plenty of bedrooms, a large open living area and a family sized kitchen with walk in pantry. This property is perfectly liveable while you build and a great
