Dual Living - Rich in History & Heart

Set upon approx. 2.5 acres of peaceful Don Valley landscape, this truly unique property offers a rare blend of history, warmth, flexibility and country charm. Rich in character, the property features two separate dwellings, including an original home dating back approximately 100 years, alongside the main residence built in the 1940s. Both homes showcase the kind of charm and soul that simply cannot be recreated, with wood fires adding warmth and ambience throughout. The main residence offers a flexible and surprisingly spacious floorplan, comfortably functioning as either a 3 bedroom home with multiple living zones, or a 4 bedroom configuration depending on your lifestyle needs. Beautiful timber touches, inviting living spaces and cosy country
