What You See:

A classic Cairns North Queenslander brimming with character, charm and opportunity. Offering two bedrooms, plus a study, one bathroom and sitting on a low-maintenance 304m² allotment, this is the kind of property that immediately captures the imagination. Traditional Queenslander features, generous proportions with high ceilings, timber internal features, and sash windows, all provide the perfect foundation for a remarkable transformation.

Downstairs, a substantial under-house area presents exciting potential for additional living space or dual occupancy (subject to relevant approvals), while the sought-after location places you just moments from the
