WHITE GATES – THE ORIGINAL TINY HOUSE

Steeped in history and tucked away off the prestigious Falls Road location in the Dandenong Ranges, White Gates is a masterclass in character, comfort and timeless appeal, all beautifully encompassed within its compact footprint. Originally built around the 1930s—locally suggested to have served as the servants' quarters to its historic neighbouring Murrindindi—this unique property stands today on its own generous 1,575m² parcel. Masterfully blending heritage details with bespoke updates, it represents the ultimate destination for those seeking a premium country retreat, a truly unique tiny home experience, or the ultimate, low-maintenance sanctuary for solo living.

From the moment you arrive, a beautifully hedged facade
