Bromley State School

Expression of interest closes at 1pm on the 17th July 2026. Immersed in local history and dating back to 1857, this remarkable property occupies the site of the original Burnt Creek School, later known as Bromley State School and ultimately Bromley Primary School. Rich in heritage and community significance, the property offers a rare opportunity to secure a landmark site with an extraordinary past.

The building is in need of restoration. There has been some work started, but ultimately needs someone willing to roll up their sleeves for some good TLC. Sitting on a parcel of land approx. 8078m2 that is lightly treed and picturesque. Other dwellings include a weather board shed/room and a storage area and old school urinal.
