Old Soul, New Possibilities

Not every home is polished – but the right one has the bones to become something special.

Set on a generous 589m² block in the heart of Bassendean, this 1920s character-potential home is filled with the charm renovators love.

From soaring ceilings and decorative cornices to original hardwood flooring and fireplaces, the foundations for something truly special are already here.

With the right vision and a little work, this could become a true standout!

What You'll Adore!

- Endless potential to renovate, restore or reimagine
- Classic character façade with welcoming front porch
- Original hardwood floorboards throughout
