Columns, High Ceilings, & Classic Charm

A beautifully updated residence, this single-level home pairs genuine period character with the bright, free-flowing proportions that today's families are searching for. Timber floors run throughout, anchoring a series of spacious, interconnected living zones defined by elegant classical columns and warm, classical detailing. It appeals directly to families and downsizers drawn to architectural substance, quality bones and an address that delivers on every practical front.

Entry leads into the open-plan dining and living area at the core of the home, where classical columns frame the space and the kitchen sits within easy reach. From here, the layout steps down into the rear lounge, the standout room of the house, where a raked ceiling rises overhead,
