UNDER CONTRACT – Exceptional Rebuild

Now under contract, this property attracted strong interest from buyers seeking a rare opportunity to secure a well-positioned allotment with the potential to create something new.

The existing dwelling had unfortunately been extensively damaged by fire and was deemed uninhabitable, making the property best suited to buyers looking to remove the remaining structure and redevelop the site. With services available and a desirable location, it presented an excellent blank canvas for a future home or investment project (STCA).

Properties offering this level of redevelopment potential continue to be in strong demand across the island.
