For many buyers, getting into the McKinnon Secondary College zone feels just out of reach – until now.

This two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment delivers a rare opportunity to secure a McKinnon Secondary College zone address without the usual price tag, combining larger-than-average internal space, a prime position just 300m from McKinnon Station, and a quieter feel in this tightly held block.

As one of the largest apartments in the building, it shares just one wall and has been freshly updated with new carpets and paint, complemented by engineered timber floors and a well-appointed stone-topped kitchen. Full-height sliding doors open to a full-length balcony terrace, drawing in natural light and giving the living zone a
