Your First Home. Or Your Next Investment. Either

Brick and tile, 1975-built Double brick and tile construction, and honestly better than it looks from the street.

The property has been freshened up ready to sell with updated lighting, fresh paint plus the kitchen and flooring that were modernised a couple of years back.

Inside flows well, tiled living and dining sitting opening into the kitchen, big sliding window looking out to the patio, and the bedrooms are a decent size with built-in robes and a timber look flooring.

Comfortable, clean, and well set up - exactly what a tenant wants, and perfect for first home buyer to move straight into.

Now, the backyard - this is where it gets interesting. That covered patio is seriously big. Full-length pergola over
