5 minutes to Oakleigh Station, No Body Corp Fees,

For buyers who want low-maintenance living but keep finding units that feel too tight, this one changes the equation. Set privately at the rear, this cream-brick single-level home was built in 2011 and delivers approx. 160m² of internal space, full-sized windows, east-facing living and the kind of solid construction that gives the home real substance.

It sits in one of Bentleigh East's most connected pockets, with buses nearby and The Links, Oakleigh Central, Mackie Road shops, Coatesville Primary School, parks and Chadstone all within easy reach. For first-home buyers, downsizers and investors, it offers the comfort of space without the maintenance of a full block.
