Family Living at the Foothills. Space, Comfort &

Set in the leafy foothills of Swan View, this spacious family home blends everyday comfort with modern convenience, the kind of place where weekends spill out under the gabled patio and the hills are your backyard, yet everything you need is still just minutes away. With parks, schools, walking trails and Midland Gate all close by, it's the perfect balance of nature and practicality. Behind the double door entrance, the home opens into generous living zones designed for families who love to spread out. The theatre room is ready for movie nights, the dining and family rooms flow effortlessly together, and the large central kitchen complete with stone benchtops will satisfy even the fussiest cook. The king size master suite is a peaceful retreat after a
