Golden Investment Bonanza with Development options

Opportunities like this are becoming increasingly rare in one of Brisbane's most tightly held inner-north suburbs. Sitting on a substantial 802m² block, 35 Barrymore Street presents developers, investors, and astute buyers with a genuine chance to secure meaningful land in a suburb undergoing significant transformation.

The existing three-bedroom, one-bathroom post-war home retains all the classic character and is neat as a pin, polished hardwood timber floors, high ceilings, and generous room proportions. With great tenants in place this is the perfect opportunity to land bank and start planning, providing holding income while plans are progressed. A covered entertaining area, detached shed, and landscaped yard round out the ground level.
