Character Home on a Generous Block

Positioned in a convenient Armidale location, 77 Mossman Street presents a charming character home with warmth, space and plenty of potential.

Rich timber floorboards add timeless appeal throughout the home, complementing the character features and creating an inviting feel from the moment you step inside.

The floor plan offers three generous bedrooms, each providing excellent space and flexibility for families, first-home buyers or investors.

The kitchen adds a distinctive touch with its classic AGA cooker, creating a warm and welcoming heart of the home, while the woodfire further enhances the home's character and comfort. The central living area is practical and inviting, and the main bathroom services the home
