Character, Comfort & Convenience

Overlooking the tranquil green open spaces of Spring Park, this charming street-front townhouse captures everything people love about living in Guildford; character, convenience and a relaxed village atmosphere.

Beautifully presented with brand-new carpets and charming decorative ceiling roses, the home is comfortable to enjoy today while still offering exciting scope to add your own personal style over time.

From the unique spiral staircase and private balconies to the peaceful park outlook, every corner has a warmth and personality that's becoming increasingly hard to find.

A low-maintenance home with timeless character, an enviable park-side position and the Guildford lifestyle
