1950's Stylishly Renovated Character Home

Positioned in one of East Lismore's most convenient locations, this beautifully presented residence seamlessly combines timeless character with modern comfort. The thoughtfully designed floorplan caters perfectly to families, professionals, or those who enjoy entertaining. The spacious main bedroom is complete with its own private ensuite, while the well-appointed family bathroom offers convenient dual access from the third bedroom, creating a flexible layout ideal for guests or extended family. A separate powder room with a third toilet adds further practicality for busy households. Rich polished spotted gum timber floors flow throughout the home, perfectly complemented by original timber-framed windows. The air conditioning and ceiling fans
