Rare Flexibility for Growing Families

Finding a home that comfortably caters to a growing family isn't always easy. Multiple living areas are common, but finding one that also offers the genuine potential for five bedrooms without sacrificing space to relax is something far harder to come by. Whether you need extra bedrooms, a home office, children's playroom or a parents' retreat, this versatile floorplan gives you the flexibility to make the home work for your family. At the heart of the home, the kitchen overlooks an expansive open-plan living, dining and sitting area where floor-to-ceiling windows flood the space with natural light while framing the generous backyard. With no neighbour to one side and peaceful views over the winter flowing creek, you'll enjoy a greater sense of space, privacy and
