Love, Love, Love Where You Live

Nestled in the heart of the Barossa Valley, 173 Bethany Road Bethany is set on 3.34 acres and feels like a love letter written by nature itself. It is a place where time slows, vineyards stretch endlessly, and timeless beauty comes together in perfect harmony.

The gentle breeze carries the scent of grapes, eucalyptus, and wildflowers, while the quiet countryside whispers stories of generations who have nurtured this beautiful land. Held in this family for 50 years every moment here feels intimate—whether you're sharing a glass of world-class wine beneath gum trees or taking a stroll where every meandering turn seems to lead to another breathtaking view.
