Built for real life

Some homes are all about the location, and this is certainly one of them.

Set on the Rennies Beach headland, this is one of those parts of Ulladulla that people hold onto for years. Surrounded by natural bushland and only a short stroll to the beach, it offers a peaceful setting while still being just minutes from the cafés, restaurants, clubs and everyday conveniences of Ulladulla.

Inside, there's an immediate sense of home. Thoughtfully cared for over the years, it has a relaxed, inviting feel that's easy to settle into. Offering four generous bedrooms and multiple living spaces, the layout has been designed to suit family life while still feeling comfortable and connected. A large fireplace adds warmth and character
