Where Every Day Ends with a Sunset

There are very few places where life naturally slows down. Kempton Street is one of them.

Here, your day begins with the sound of the Indian Ocean and a morning walk along the beach just moments from your front door. Evenings are spent watching spectacular sunsets disappear into the horizon, a ritual that never grows old. It's a lifestyle that has drawn generations of families to this tightly held stretch of Bluff Point and one that remains as special today as it was nearly three decades ago.

Positioned directly opposite one of Geraldton's most picturesque stretches of coastline, 112 Kempton Street is a substantial double-brick residence designed to embrace its extraordinary setting. At the heart of the home, vaulted
