A Home Built on Family Dreams - TRADIE delight

Built in 1967 by an Italian family who began their dream right here in Violet Street, this much-loved home has been at the heart of one family for generations. It is a place where children were raised, family and friends gathered, meals were shared and countless memories were created.

Now, after almost six decades, the time has come for a new family to continue its story.

Set on a generous 817sqm block, the home is outstanding in size, with wonderfully spacious rooms designed for family living. From busy weekday mornings to large Sunday lunches, family celebrations and quiet evenings together, there is room here for everyone, even the biggest or busiest of families with multiple living zones
