Central Lismore Location

This air-conditioned home was built in the late 1940's and has only been sold on two occasions – testament to its enduring charm and solid construction.

Over the years it has been thoughtfully renovated, blending classic character with modern comfort. Upstairs features polished timber floors, high ceilings, a contemporary kitchen with dishwasher and three generously sized bedrooms.

Downstairs is a fully concreted multipurpose haven – perfect for hobby space, or a home business, offering abundant car accommodation, workshop, fourth bedroom, rumpus room, small basic kitchenette and a second bathroom.

Outside, the level fenced yard is a perfect setting for
