Major Regional Residential Development Opportunity

A major 23.5 hectare coastal landholding adjoining the Kingston Golf Course and minutes from the Marine Parade foreshore, Lot 21 Cooke Street offers prospective purchasers a substantial canvas for multi stage residential development or an integrated lifestyle precinct (STCA).

Beyond its immediate township appeal, Kingston SE plays a vital role as a major service centre for the broader Limestone Coast region, drawing on an extended regional population of over 70,000 people within a 150 kilometre radius. It serves as a critical hub for health and community services, boasting a modern medical centre and the Kingston Soldiers' Memorial Hospital, complete with dedicated aged care and retirement facilities.
