Built on a Scale That's Hard to Replace

Some homes impress with finishes. Others impress with just how much property you are actually getting. Set high in one of Wandina's most sought-after pockets on a generous 1,001m² block, this impressive family residence combines an elevated position, ocean and range views, expansive living and an incredible amount of infrastructure.

From the sweeping front staircase and extensive paving to the wraparound verandahs and solid brick construction, the scale of the home is apparent before you even step inside. With today's building costs, it's worth considering just what it would take to recreate a property like this from the ground up.

Inside, soaring vaulted ceilings add to the sense of space,
