Quiet Leafy Location with Reserve Outlook

Enjoy the peace and privacy of island living with this 559m² block, ideally positioned on the outskirts of the township while still offering a wonderfully secluded and leafy feel.

The block gently slopes from back to front and is situated directly opposite Redland City Council reserve land, providing a pleasant natural outlook with the added bonus of no neighbours directly across the road.

Surrounded by established greenery, this property offers a peaceful setting to build your new island home while remaining within easy reach of the township and local amenities.

Whether you're looking to build your forever home, a relaxing island retreat or secure land for the future, this
