

For Lease

Spacious Unit

From the moment you step through the door, a high raked ceiling and striking jarrah beams draw your eye up, setting a tone of space and light that carries through every room. This north-facing three bedroom home is one of the largest in the complex - giving it a genuine sense of privacy and space you don't expect to find in a unit or villa.

The kitchen is spacious. The living and dining areas stay comfortable year-round with split system air conditioning.

You'll also have your own lock-up garage for secure parking, and the year yard and patio are quite generous for a unit.
