Space, Style & Flexibility on a Quiet Cul-de-Sac

Set on a quiet cul-de-sac and enjoying an eastern facing aspect, this versatile property at 5 Kathleen Cres offers the perfect combination of family living and flexibility, complete with a fully self-contained second living space. The main house features three bedrooms and two bathrooms both with heated flooring, one of which being an ensuite, with a beautifully sunken formal living area adding real character and a lovely sense of separation from the everyday living spaces. Exposed beam ceilings run throughout, paired with a mix of cork floors and carpet, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The kitchen is finished with stone benchtops, a gas stove, electric oven and industrial exhaust fan, striking a great balance between style and practicality for the home
